Moses Gwinleaf Esq

Dear Sir not hearing any thing from you for some time I take the liberty to Enquire about the Taxes on Mr Ewins land for the year 1828 which I beleve is not paid will you be good enough to inform me of the amount & I expect that Messers Hill & Sturatt of Bangor would pay you the amount if you should happen at Bangor or could send with out putting you to much trouble I lade your statement before Mr Ewins in regard to purchasing the land & he said that he thought he could not comply with it but said he would write you on the subject which I presume he did

Yours Respectfully
William Carleton
